

Remarks on Board Barque C. W. Morgan of New Bedford

Monday June 8th

This day commences with strong breeze from N. and rainy and then commence to blow gale until about 2 P.M. become more moderate but we broke out some oil and got ready to start by the steamer

Tuesday June 9th

Fresh breeze from S.W. and cloudy weather. This day we had first Liberty

Wednesday June 10th

Light breeze and weather all this day & we had second Liberty three men run away to anchor at Mongonui

Thursday June 11th

To anchor at Mongonui with very fine weather this day we took in our Provision getting ready for sea and I had last Liberty

Friday June 12th

To anchor at Mongonui one watch on the Liberty and the other at work stowing down and packing mete the last Liberty

Saturday June 13th

To anchor at Mongonui this we employed in stowing down Provisions and small stores

Sunday June 14th

This begins with rain squall in the fore part in the latter part fine weather I was to valley all day come back at 8 P.M. in company with three more

Blow from N.

Four men run away from Capt. Keith

Three men run away from Capt. Keith

Two men run away from Capt. Keith

Bedford C. F. Keith Master on whaling voyage

Monday June 15th

To anchor at Mongonui with very fine weather we rose our chains and sheets

Tuesday June 16th

To anchor at Mongonui this day we are wooding getting slabs from the other main

Wednesday June 17th

Strong breeze from N.W. and cloudy this day we done no work only took some Berley from the steamer

Thursday June 18th

Strong breeze from N.W. in the first of the day in the latter part more moderate and little rain but we towed out Raft of casks for water

Friday June 19th

This day begins with moderate gale from N. and hailing to N.W. the Barque to anchor at Mongonui and we have a Raft of casks out side waiting for better weather

Saturday June 20th

This day commences with rain storm but light breeze from N.W. middle and latter part fresh breeze from W.S.W. and light rain we took in Raft water from the out side

Sunday June 21st

To anchor at Mongonui this day we have very fine weather

Monday June 22^d

To anchor at Mongonui with very fine weather

Tuesday June 23^d

To anchor at Mongonui with very fine weather quiet ready for sea

Coast of Longman

Steamer day

Get down ways men

Work in some area

Little trouble with crew