

Brig Charlotte in Tombus

Friday May 15th 1852

Employed stirring away the water and other necessary employments

Saturday May 15th 1852

Employed overhauling onions & taking on board fire wood.

Sunday May 16th

In the morning took the starboard anchor in the rail and made all preparations for sea.

Monday May 17th

Employed overhauling the onions &c.

Tuesday May 18th 1852

P.M. At 4 hoisted up the anchor and made sail in company with the Rebecca Sims a whale ship

Course W by S

Latitude at noon by observation

S 2° 2' 4"

Rebecca Sims
whale ship

15
towards San Francisco

Remarks Sunday May 23rd 1852

P.M. Winds and weather continue the same Course W by S. Employed picking over the onions drying them and packing them again in boxes. Oliver C Folger

A.M. The trades continue steady from the S.E. and S by S with misty weather. Oliver C Folger (Signature)

Latitude by observation 2° 1'

Oliver C Folger Alfred Folger

Remarks Monday May 24th

Steady fresh breeze as usual and cloudy. J. P. J.

Folger Folger Oliver C Folger

A.M. S winds and weather

Oliver C Folger Folger Folger

Employed making spinnaker &c

Course S.W. by W. Folger Folger

Latitude by observation 2° 58' S

Longitude by Chronometer 100° 09' W