

Thursday May 26th / 1859 Comes in with little breeze from South and thick fog clearing North at 10 A.M. sailed up some and saw Bear head island a good deal of ice over the shore and up the bay 4 P.M. run in with in 3 miles of low island anchored with 6 fathoms and 3 inch rope found ice coming down as got under way again Sat part little baffling winds and thick fog 3 ships with Laying off and low head island So ends these 24 hours

Friday May 27th / 1859 First No Wind and thick fog Laying to North side of low head island Mid little breeze from S.W. and thick 4 P.M. fog cleared up saw low head island clear aboard of us squared yards and run on towards North Shore saw ice all around and kept to Sat part little winds and clear So ends these 24 hours

Saturday May 28th Passes with little breeze from S.W. and fine weather First part and Mid work up to Bear head island in a clear stream ice all around but closed under Bear head island latter part Laying off and on so ends these 24 hours

Sunday May 29th
Comes in with little winds from S.W. and good weather Lay off and on Bear head island in a clear stream Mid the same latter part strong breeze and thick ice all but under Bear head island in 60 with 2 ships So ends these 24 hours

Monday May 30th 1859 Comes in with little baffling winds from West and thick Laying off and Bear head island 6 A.M. fog cleared and good of clear water under Laying point and along shore run down in the it with little winds from West and fine weather latter part Mid come anchor with our 6 fathoms and rope 2 ships closed in to North Shore So ends

Tuesday May 31st / 59 Comes in with very little winds from South and thick fog 1 P.M. ice come down on us took our 6 fathoms and Layed off Blast and on the ice 3 P.M. cleared up Saw the ice very Laying run to Shore 6 A.M. come to anchor off North Shore 10 miles off in 25 fathoms water Saw one whale lowered and has to latter part little winds from West and good weather So ends these 24 hours

Wednesday June 1st / 1859 Comes in with little winds from S.W. and fine weather have up our anchor and went closed to Land and anchored in 15 fathoms water all the boats going off Wood 3 ships to anchor closed to us So ends this day

Thursday June 2nd / 59 Comes in with little winds from East and thick fog went in shore and Saw got some wood 11 A.M. cleared up 4 boats went off cruising for whales Saw one So ends these 24 hours