

Thursday April 19th 1859

Commenced with moderate Trade Barks could West with all sail set. Weather fair weather the same Barks and Ship in sight but no whales To Enos

Vanished head by Wednesday 20th

Commenced with moderate Trade Barks could N.W. M. Albershead head by Middle & Vallen part calm with a strong sun shiny to the Southward Barks and Ship Ship Hector To Enos

Vanished head by Thursday 21st

Commenced with light Trade Barks could N.W. in company with Ship Hector Middle part weather fine Vallen part the same at 6 P.M. saw Barks the Northward made all sail and started for them at 11 P.M. proved to be Spout Whales saw them spouting off the Barks distant To Enos

Vanished head by Friday 22nd

Commenced with light Trade Barks in sight at 1 P.M. landed at 4 P.M. struck and got three Barks out of sight Barks coming at 1 P.M. took the along side at daylight commenced cutting at Museum finished To Enos

Vanished head by Saturday 23rd

Commenced with Pleasant weather Employed Chain the heads to Middle part the same Vallen part Employed Boiling and we feel very thankful to be thus Employed and we sincerely hope to have some more soon

Vanished head by Sunday 24th

Sunday April 24th 1859

Commenced with light Trade Barks heading to the N.W.
Employed Boiling and Sincerely wish we could be thus Employed for two weeks as Sunday is the grandest Middle & Vallen part weather fine sun fair Barks and Porpoises and hope to see Whales again soon Two Ships in sight To Enos

Vanished head by Monday 25th

Commenced with Pleasant weather at 3 P.M.
Barks with Ship Hector & 40 Mings Middle part calm Vallen part light Trade the two Ships in sight but no Whales finished Boiling and ready for some more To Enos

Vanished 25 miles distant Tuesday 26th

Commenced with light sun & calm at 3 P.M.
Landed in shore at sunset saw & landed for 10 days at 8 P.M. Barks and Barks got more Middle part calm Vallen part light Barks sun no Whales
in sight but no Whales To Enos

Vanished head by
Wednesday 27th

Commenced with light sun & calm two Ships in sight and we are hoping to see some Whales soon Middle & Vallen light sun & calm two Ships in sight To Enos

Vanished head by Thursday 28th

Commenced with light Barks from N.W.
Barks heading in shore two Ships in sight Middle & Vallen part the same sun many Porpoises

Vanished head by now land agging to try Sunday for a Whales