

Saturday Aug 11

This day begins with fair winds from the N. by E. to moderate at four Am. at 8 Am. shoots the reef on the forenoon and hove in the Jib. Puller Boat. Calm
Lat. 39.10 Long. 61.39

Lat. 39.10 Long. 61.39

Sunday Aug 12.

This day begins with light calm weather
inadequate gentle breeze from the NW better part wind coming is the NW current's and in hand is the current a Lat 39.12 Long 61.00

Monday 13th

This A. M. very moderate - several sail in sight.
steering to the eastward, latter part gentle breeze
from S. W. ~~Lat 60.40~~ Lat 59.48

Tuesday 14th

This day begins with light wind from S. & W. with much rain - continued rain through out the day - Saw several square riggers - bound to the eastward, also saw a large steamer which passed close by - Lat 61.05 Lon 41.11

Wednesday Aug 18-

87
 Begins with light snow from the pleasant weather and a large flock of snow birds. More large fish in the tanks

Thursday Aug 16

By this will be seen figures the sky were not with light foggy weak the wind blowing to the NW. later part thick fog pass a big black cloud is the Southern

Friday Aug 17

Began with light S.W. wind with foggy weather made port. the fog blew and was three fishing vessels observed one and got a few ~~that were~~ better than more made no money at all 42.00 Long 67.33-

Saturday Aug 18

Begins well higher end from the width being 42.40 on five soils
in angle at summit 42.20 long 67.50