

for Oronoque

This happened on the side and the first ship came here in Edgartown 1814, 8 for 3 quarters & his son the fourth in this business

We not latter his over claim of 600, ^{also profits} more a less, & why - Became Smith had visited his indemnity when to go -

He had broken his contract as to time of 42 hrs.

He had threatened him with damage to his voyage by taking out officers. He threatened him by saying he would see before the voyage ended.

We carried it out by saying to him 6000 dollars if he -

He ordered to answer to command by Mr. Graham, & was regarded by Oronoque to be of the Legation Graham

That Oronoque was surprised to find that he used the smaller sum instead of the larger.

& I think it was the latter intended was.

That Oronoque was very noble -

So is his case as a matter of Justice -

& he lost of almost the entire capital.

(The ship was in the condition
