

Jan 1. 1884

Mon This day begins with very fresh trades ship under short sail the wach busy breaking out sails at sundown headed the ship off shore latter part but a little for the wind moderating Lat 16.05 Long 09.10 E

Tues 2 This day begins with fresh trades ship under short sail and rolling like seaon till the wach breaking out meat latter part began to moderate down so made more sail Lat 16.14 Long 08.36 E

Wed 3. 1884

This day begins with moderate breezes ship cruising past at night see a large piece of whitehorn or punk floating on top of the water killed the hog & 2 chickens latter part wind moderate ship cruising the wach busy at ship duty Lat 16.02 Long 09.39 E

Sat 4. 1884

This day begins with fine weather the wach getting out water see lots of finbacks latter part ship heaving in shore with all sail left the wach busy making spinnaker Lat 16.07 Long 11.11 E

Sun 5. 1884

This day begins with with fine whaling weather ship heading in shore so as to make the land at 9 AM sighted the coast and stood the ship in shore until twelve o'clock got latitude found Chron No 2 about 5 five miles out to the eastward the shore ship and stood the ship off shore Chron No 1 6 five degrees out Lat 16.24 Long 11.34 E

Jan 6. 1884

Mon This day begins with fine weather ship heading by the wind on the port tack latter part strong trades ship under double reef topsails & courses the wach busy at ship duty Lat 16.17 Long 10.09 E

Tues 7. 1884

This day begins with fresh trades ship heading off shore see finbacks & squid latter part ship under double reef topsails & courses the wach busy at ship duty Lat 16.30 Long 08.38 E

Wed 8. 1884

This day begins with fresh trades ship by the wind on the port tack latter part still fresh breezes the wach busy at ship duty Lat 16.03 Long 08.12 E at sundown shorten sail

Thurs 9. 1884

This day begins with moderate trades ship steering off West see finbacks & squid latter part busy breaking out water at sundown wore ship on in the starboard tack and shorten sail Lat 17.33 Long 06.07 1/4 E

Friday 10. 1884

This day begins with fine weather ship cruising the wach busy first part repairing mainsail latter part making spinnaker at sundown shorten sail ship laying on starboard tack see killus today ship Lat 17.06 Long 06.05 E

Sat 11. 1884

This day begins with calm weather engaged putting new roping on to the old jib also breaking out small stores latter part see grass pass at sundown shorten sail Lat 16.40 Long 06.03 E