

Nov 5. 1884

Sat This day begins with very fine weather ship cruising middle part see Blackfish the wach busy at ship duty latter part pump ship seat 06.14 long 01.02

Sun 6. 1884

This day begins with very fine weather ship cruising the ground looks dry rounded the pumps just at night ship mail 9 nine inches of water in 24 hours seat 05.58 long 00.38 miles East

Mon 7. 1884

This day begins with fresh breeze ship cruising see Blackfish & lots of porpoises three years ago to day the ship sailed from Edgartown dock lots of changes during that time on board of the Clarice 1 new Capt 1 new mate 1 new second mate & three new 3 third mates

Ship seat 06.11 long 00.26 miles E

Tues 8. 1884

This day begins with very fine weather ship cruising just at night see fin back repaired the fore sail and bent the old main top galantise forward as the old one was very poor Ship 06.11 long 00.34 West

Wed 9. 1884

This day begins with very good weather ship cruising the wach busy at ship duty seat 06.43 long 00.11 mile East

Nov 10. 1884

Thurs First part the day begins with fine weather ship cruising also lots of life starting about the wach busy at ship duty in general alls pick out water just at night pump ship found the usual amount of water in the hole amount leakage 9 nine inches in 24 hours seat 07.02 long 00.15 miles W

Frid 11. 1884

This day begins with fresh trade ship cruising about looking sharp but every thing looks dry and forsaken the wach busy at ship duty seat 07.10 long 00.21 miles West

Sat 12. 1884

This day begins with fresh trade ship cruising see lots of porpoises latter part the day the strap that the port back rope sets to part leting everything loose attached to it got a tack in the back rope and pulled held it tant for the night seat 07.08 long 00.24 miles West

Sun 13. 1884

This day begins with fresh breeze ship on the east main tack see 2 two school of Blackfish heading into the west ship seat 06.40 long 01.13 East