

Bark Glacier of Edgartown

Jan 18. 1882

This day begins with light squally weather ship steering by the wind on the port tack middle part the wind changed more to the eastward so ship steered a course South latter part wind about north all light rains wash busy breaking out meat & small stores at 4 P.M. sounded the pump found 19 inches of water in the ship started the pump 350 strokes during the last 12 hours. 500 strokes the last 24 hours. Ship Lat 32 50 Long 08 20 80 42 West

Thurs 19. 1882

This day begins with fresh breezes ship steering S.E. wind S.W. rain & a bit water early in the morning proved to be pump at 10 A.M. wind breezing on so furled the light sails at 12 o'clock cloth reefed forward and double reefed the main topsails then hoisted the boats up on the upper fleet got everything fast and luffed the ship by the wind on the port tack ship leaking quite freely latter part fresh breezes weather looks better at 4 P.M. pump ship again ship has leaked during the last 24 hours one thousand and one hundred strokes. Ship Lat 33 00 Long 07 40 80 15 West

St Vincent Capt. Jan 20. 1882

This day begins with strong breezes from the E.S.W. ship laying under close reef main topsails furled the foretop sail & foresail at 2 o'clock last night at 7 o'clock A.M. began to thicken up and rain all moderate so set the foresail at 11 eleven A.M. wind shifted into the S.W. at 2 P.M. set the foretop sail and kept ship off shore wind gradually moderating and clearing up at 4 P.M. pump ship 700 seven hundred & five during the last 24 hours. no Long

Sat 21. 1882

This day begins with fine weather ship steering E by E. at daylight shark reefs out of the topsails all set the light sails ship has leaked 750 seven hundred and eighty strokes of the pump Lat 33 12 Long 05 27 80 00 West

Sun 22. 1882

This day begins with very light weather ship working to the eastward middle & latter part calm ship has leaked 350 strokes of the pump during the last 24 hours ship Lat 31 58 Long 04 37 80 13 West

Mon 23. 1882

This day begins with light squally weather wind about West middle part breezed on quite fresh in the square ship steering East furled the light sails at 10 P.M. ship has leaked 850 eight hundred and fifty strokes since six o'clock this morning up to 4 P.M. 1025 strokes during the last 24 hours. Ship Lat 33 06 Long 03 48 80 45 West hoisted up the mast & Bow Boats just before noon