

Bark Clarion of Edgartown

Feb 1st 1882

Wens This day begins with moderate trades ship by the wind on the starboard tack the wash working in the rigging also breaking out provisions latter part set the foretop galant sail ship has not leaked as much this 24 hours as the 24 hours before number of strokes 720 ship Lat 18° 00' Long 72° 41' E

Thurs 2nd 1882

This day begins with very light trades ship cruising along by the wind on the starboard tack Capt Vincent went down into the forepeak and board into the stem all into some of the timbers but found but a very little of solid wood number of strokes ship has leaked the last 24 hours 890 at sundown wind freshened Lat 16° 58' Long 04° 28' E

Frid 3rd 1882

This day begins with very light winds ship cruising along by the wind the wash busy at ship duty ship has leaked during the last 24 hours 909 strokes ship Lat 15° 36' Long 06° 08' East.

Sat 4th 1882

This day begins with very light weather ship cruising the wash busy breaking out water ship leaked the last 24 hours 980 strokes in number Lat 14° 50' Long 06° 50' East.

Capt F Vincent

Feb 5th 1882

Sun This day begins with very light winds and smooth water ship on the port tack heading W by N by the wind see porpoise early this morning latter part the day wind breezed a little ship with all sail set ship has leaked 620 strokes during the last 24 hours

Lat 16° 00' Long 04° 47' E

Mon 6th 1882

This day begins with very light weather ship steering into the west middle part raised a sail some point before the bow run down to it which proved to be the Schooner Pedro Varela Capt Keckerson gained her Capt & went on board of her she being 10 ten months out 1140 bbls ship has leaked 876 strokes ship Lat 16° 20' Long 03° 03' East

Tues 7th 1882

Today begins with very light winds ship steering along W by N the wash busy at ship duty in general ship leaked the last 24 hours 550 strokes no observation to day the school of sight today

Wens 8th 1882

This day begins with very light & squally weather ship steering into the westward see lots of porpoises the wash busy at ship duty ship has leaked 622 strokes during the last 24 hours

Lat 15° 30' Long 08° 12' East

Thurs 9th 1882

Today the wind is very light ship steering W by N the wash busy at ship duty ship has leaked 622 strokes during the last 24 hours ship Lat 14° 00' Long 01° 52' W