

Barque Clarice of Edgartown

Feb 10. 1882

This day begins with very light weather ship steering into the North the wach busy repairing the mainsail. See one merchant vessel steering for the Island ship has 390 strokes during the last 24 hours Lat 19.15 Long 02.40 W

Sat 11. 1882

This day begins with very light weather ship steering along by E one sail in sight the wach busy repairing the mainsail middle part got all repaired and bent it then took out flour & water ship has leaked during the last 24 hours 480 strokes

Lat 18.30 Long 03.00 West

Sun 12. 1882

This day begins with very light breezy ship cruising along on the eastern tack by the wind 4 sails in sight one being a whaling schooner with his mainsail set and fore sail furled apparently had a whale on deck. Ship leaked the last 24 hours 560 strokes at sundown furled the light sails Lat 17.45 Long 03.04 West

Mon 13. 1882

This day begins with light trades ship by the wind 3 three sails have passed us today ship has leaked 30 strokes during the last 24 hours Ship Lat 17.44 Long 03.29 West at sundown furled the light sails

Capt. F. Vincent

Feb 14. 1882

Tues. This day begins with moderate breezy ship cruising along by the wind with all sail set have seen lots of merchant ships pass us today the wach busy at ship duty. Ship leaked 600 strokes during the last 24 hours at sundown furled the light sails Ship Lat 17.15 Long 03.06 West

Wens 15. 1882

This day begins with fresh trades ship cruising along by the wind have seen one sail. the wach busy at ship duty in general ship has leaked 950 strokes during this 24 hours seems to increase fast with the wind.

Ship Lat 16.52 Long 02.55 West

Thurs 16. 1882

This day begins with fresh trades ship by the wind on the port tack middle part set the flying jib as it began to moderate at 4 PM pump ship 1440 strokes during the last 24 hours all on tack ship and at sundown set to the light sails kept the ship off St. Helena Capt Vincent being sick.

Ship Lat 18.46 Long 03.55 West

Frid 17 Today begins with fresh trades ship steering a course by East with all sail set middle part made some the wach busy breaking out provisions Capt Vincent no better. Ship steering 30 miles to the Eastward of the Island ship has leaked 9740 strokes

Lat 17.12 Long 04.52 West