

Ship Climatic of New London

Feb 17 Strong breeze from N.W. and thick
Friday 17 Rainy weather Double reef tops fore sails steering to the Southward Latitude 30° 04' Long 71° 04'

Feb 18 Strong breeze and equally wind all round
Saturday 18 the compass how the Dry words over board had a breeze to seaward
 Latitude 31° 00' Long 71° 38'

Feb 19 Fine weather spoke the Schooner Mary Ann Sunday 19 of Warren Pitts from Boston bound for New Orleans with a cargo of Ice from Portland Air 66° Water 66° At 12 o'clock sails. Moderate pleasant latter blows on fresh for Gloucester anchored on the beach
 Lat 32° 25' Long 73° 16'

Monday 20 Comes this day Strong breeze and equally Feb 20 passes the Brig Poppy of Northampton blows of fresh Double reef tops Air 73° Water 73° Heavy Gale and equally wind hauls to the N.W. End l

Feb 21 Comes this day with the baffling wind
Feb 21 One dark equally weather and plenty thunder Air 68° Water 73° And lightning furler top Gallant sails Middle and latter heavy Gale from N.W. heading west
 Latitude by A.C. 35° 33' Long 72° 38'

Wednes 22 Heavy Gale and still heavier squally
Feb 22 Midnight more moderate bore ship heading North set the tops Double reef Air 45° Water 73° latter furler fore and main topst close reef the main wind P.W.
 Lat 36° 20' Long 71°

185

Ship Chron June Sunday 9/6/20
Time was 5:45:12 Ship Chron at same time
Loss 5:45:11 Gain 136:157
301 36:14 rate

Standard 316 October 11/1844
Chronometer rate at Mecca October 11/1844
Loss 5:45:11 Gain 136:157
Ship Chron