

Log of Bark Cleone John E. Simmons

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Tuesday June 24 th
2 P.M.	87.30g. S.W.	First part light breezes and light foggy on opposite tacks, water very much discolored saw pinbacks.
		Long by Obs Alt 146.53 N.
		Middle part calm, with foggy.
		Latter part the foggy broken at 10 A.M. light breeze, the water discolored.
		Lat by meridian Alt 57.38.11

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Wednesday June 25 th
4 P.M.	88.31g. S.W. E.	First part light air and light foggy squalls still employed in killing, saw a few pinbacks.
7.30	E.S.E.	Long by Obs Alt 146.30 N.
	E.	Middle part more pleasant two sail in sight.
	4.12g.	Latter part saw several whales lower the boats, some boat struck, went off with fore dumb cones, and three lines spouting then blow.

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Thursday June 26 th
	89.31g. S.	First part light breezes and foggy squalls, saw quite a number of whales, several sail in sight, water discolored.
		Middle part the same.
		Latter part still foggy squalls, variously employed.
		saw a few pinbacks.
		Several sail in sight, stowing in various directions, none of them seem to be whaling.

Continued, Cruising off Seaback in 1856,

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Friday June 27 th
	90.31g. S.W.	First part moderate breezes and foggy squalls, spoke the Liverpool, nothing this season.
		Middle part fresh and pleasant.
		Latter part the same, saw a few humpbacks and pinbacks.
		employed in stowing down oil, water very much discolored.
		Lat by meridian Alt 57.38.11

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Saturday June 28 th
	91.31g. S.W.	First part fresh breezes and very pleasant weather, finished stowing down, lower for a while, without success, at 2 P.M. in blue water.
		Long by Obs Alt 143.52 N.
		Middle part set in foggy.
		Latter part strong breezes and foggy squalls, in quick succession, on opposite tacks and stowing various courses.

Hour	Day out Wind Course	Remarks on board Sunday June 29 th
	92.31g. S.	First part strong breezes and thick foggy squalls in quick succession with rain, saw a gam of whales, and a few lone ones, lower without success.
		at 3 P.M. more moderate and less foggy.
		Middle part the same.
		Latter part still squally, but lighter and less frequent.
		saw a few pinbacks, moderating slowly.
		Lat by meridian Alt 58.05.11