

Chippewagon Bay

Thursday 28th Feb 1851

Came from fine leading S E wind S at 4³⁰ AM wore ship to the NW Middle fine to the same wind S wore ship to the E

Lat 32 50 S Long 175 18 E

Friday 1st March

Came from fine wind S E strong 6 AM Middle fine to the same leading S E by E

Lat 32 27 Long 175 42

Saturday 2nd March

Came from fresh wind S E leading S E by E at sundown took in sail, wore ship to S Middle and to the same

Lat 32 42 Long 175 35

Sunday 3rd March

Came from fresh wind S E leading S E by E under keels Middle same to the same leading S E

Lat 32 18 S Long 175 42

Monday 4th March

Came from fresh wind East saw S M and L Packet at sundown wore ship to the NW Middle and to the same

Lat 32 44 Long 175 45

Tuesday 5th March

Came from strong wind S E at night took in sail wore ship to the SE Middle leading S E to the same leading to the

Lat 33 00 Long 175 30

Wednesday 6th March

Came from strong gale from the SE under short sail wore ship to the NW 10-1 ship in sight rainy weather Middle same to the thick and calm

Lat 32 43 Long 175 15

Lois Haven

295

Thursday 7th March

Came from clear calm S M in sight Middle and to the same leading S E weather leading to the East

Lat 32 40 Long 175 30

Friday 8th March

Came from calm Middle and to the same light wind S E leading East

Lat 32 59 Long 175 50

Saturday 9th March

Came from strong wind S E leading to the East at 6 AM wore ship to the NW Middle same to the same leading to the East thick weather at 10 AM saw whales going to the North saw three or four bounding whales at 11 AM did not see them further

Lat 32 46 S Long 175 46 E

Sunday 10th March

Came from thick weather strong wind S E leading to the East at sundown took in sail leading to the East

Lat 33 04 Long 175 45 E

Monday 11th March

Came from wind same S E at night took in sail leading to the NW Middle same to the wind S E light and thick at 8 AM in sight leading to the

Lat 33 04

Tuesday 12th March

Came from wind led to the S NW to the SE wind took in lead S E Middle same to the wind S E leading to the

Lat 32 24 Long 176 06

Wednesday 13th March

Came from strong wind S E leading to the NW at sundown wore ship to the NW Middle and to the same fine weather wind S E leading to the S NW S M in sight

Lat 32 22 Long 175 16