Life on board of ship I think
 Is very hard to misers brains
 For our comforts are so small
 A mustard seed would hold them all
 And yet we live a happy life
 In this world of care and strife

I mean to say we all feel free
 While we are on the rolling sea
 Bounding over the billows so gay
 On our dark and trackless way
 We care not how the winds do blow
 Nor do we fear the rain and snow
 That we must

What is the purpose here or what they purpose here

Antidote for bedbugs
 As taken from the American Union
 Take a quantity of whale oil and an equal portion of lard or tallow and mix then together till they mix
 I think some of the animals will have to suffer on board the good ship Columbus if this be the Poison

Father of sin where is he now
 If present let him answer
 To the questions I shall ask
 About the age of Adam's
