

Remarks on board Bark Columbus of New Bedford
Sunday Feb 16 1843

these 24 hours breaking out and battering and blowing down

Friday Feb 17

these 24 hours raining, battering
and blowing down all

Saturday Feb 18

these 24 hours blew on shore Sunday

Sunday Feb 19

these 24 hours battering and blowing down

Monday Feb 20

these 24 hours battering and blowing down

Tuesday Feb 21

these 24 hours finished battering

Wednesday Feb 22

these 24 hours painting ship &c

Thursday Feb 23

these 24 hours painting ship and setting up shacks

Friday Feb 24

these 24 hours setting up shacks

Saturday Feb 25

these 24 hours ice-bergs in ships way

Sunday Feb 26

these 24 hours ships crew on shore

Monday Feb 27

these 24 hours getting of wood and
water

Tuesday Feb 28

these 24 hours getting of wood and
water

Wednesday Feb 1, 1843

these 24 hours showing down water

Thursday March 2

these 24 hours getting and showing
it away

Friday March 3

these 24 hours water on shore

Continued

Saturday March 4, 1843

these 24 hours watchmen shore getting ready for sea

Sunday March 5

these 24 hours commenced with calm
at 10 AM took the anchor with a fine breeze and went to sea from White

Monday March 6

Moderate to trade winds steering 9 by 3 steamed the anchor and despatched the pilot sends these 24 hours Lat 18.56 Long 149.28

Tuesday March 7

Moderate to trades by the wind 2 sail in
in night sends Lat 21.01 Long 148.58

Wednesday March 8

Moderate winds from ~~SW~~ by the wind
saw 4 rated boats struck one killed
3 took them to the ship Lat 22.00 Long 148.00

Thursday March 8

Moderate to winds it raining but in the shacks latter part clear sailing 21.51.9

Friday March 9

Strong winds from NW and raining drove down steering 8 latter part sailing clear Lat 23.10 Long 148.30

Saturday March 10

Moderate winds from W steering 8 by 3 finished sailing raining middle and latter clear Lat 21.56 Long 145.03

Sunday March 11

Moderate to winds from W steering 8 by 3
raining sends Lat 22.24.9

Monday March 12

Moderate winds from W to E with with rain and calm middle and latter the same day 23.08 Long 142.24.2

Tuesday March 13

Moderate to winds from W steering
8 by 3 raining Lat 23.28.9 Long 140.53.7