

174
 Monday April 15th 1850
 Fresh breeze and cloudy weather P.M. Working and reading the news that we got from the shore and made out all the latitude saw a merchantman bound to west ward Lat 16° 23' South
 Lon 4° 16' West
 Tuesday April 16th 1850
 Fresh breeze and fine clear weather
 P.M. The latitude still saw a lone sperm whale Sounded and the vessel that struck and brought along side a few moments before 12 O'clock Lat 17° 24' South Lon 4° 32' West
 100 lbs
 Wednesday April 17th 1850
 Fine clear weather
 P.M. commenced to work in the whale boat made but little progress at all working the whale Lat 17° 18' South
 Lon 4° 44' West
 Thursday April 18th 1850
 Fine clear weather
 P.M. finished cutting in the body line in the junk and raised up the caise and started to bail but righ over board was so the captain was obliged to let it hang till morning started the try works going bailed the caise the try work a going Friday April 19th 1850 Lat 16° 53' South
 Lon 4° 50' West
 Fine clear weather
 P.M. finished bailing the caise and cut up front of the junk the try work a going out for hay and pork and meat up the saw the try work a going Lat 16° 32' South Lon 4° 52' West

175
 Saturday April 20th 1850
 Fresh breeze and fine clear weather
 P.M. finished trying out washed / dokes &c still coopersing oil took up the blubber room floor and made ready for storing oil Sunday April 21st 1850
 Fresh gales single reefed top sails P.M. but little doing still the sabbath saw 3 ships bound seaward Lat 17° 46' South
 Lon 4° 28' West
 Monday April 22nd 1850
 Fresh gales and squally weather
 P.M. the sabbath still storing down Tuesday April 23rd 1850
 Fresh breeze and squally weather P.M. Stowing down still finished storing down
 Wednesday April 24th 1850
 Fresh breeze and fine weather P.M. broke out for molasses and was see ship still at work on the whaling and trying apparatuses Lat 16° 34' South Lon 4° 04' West
 20 lbs
 Thursday April 25th 1850
 Small breeze and fine weather P.M. Raised a blasted whale and took him alongside of the cut in the whale The above mentioned whale was killed the Bark Sarah of Flatport