

Ship Cornelia of N Bedford on passage from Helena to N Bedford

Saturday June 22nd 1850

These 24 hours breezes and fine clear weather on Course at N West

P.M. Rattling down the starboard main rigging at all striped the fore topmast rigging on the starboard side and set it up Lat 5^h 04' North Lon 34^h 42' West

Sunday June 23rd 1850

These 24 hours squally with a fair shower of rain. Course at N West P.M. The hold at all the sabbath. Can get a few fish Lat 6^h 46' North
Lon 35^h 43' West

Monday June 24th 1850

These 24 hours calm and squalls from S.W. raised the land winds P.M. the sabbath at all making stowage meeting etc Lat 7^h 24' North
Lon 36^h 38' West

Tuesday June 25th 1850

These 24 hours squalls calm with rain from S.W. Course at N West P.M. the weather did not admit of much work besides making taking in sail at all but little doing broke out a barrel of pork Lat 8^h 47' North
Lon 37^h 45' West

Wednesday June 26th

These 24 hours near breezes and fine evening weather Course at N West P.M. Seizing on the leading lurches and hauled some rigging to all setting the fore top mast rigging Lat 10^h 21' North Lon 39^h 45'

Cornelia of N Bedford on her passage from Helena to N Bedford

Thursday June 27th 1850

These 24 hours calm squalls rain and fresh and light breezes Course at N West P.M. broke out for flour in at all chain in the feeding business

Friday June 28th 1850

These 24 hours fresh gales and squalls
Course at N West by N
P.M. Handed the fore topsail at all finished at bring down the fore rigging Lat 14^h 04' North
Lon 43^h 54' West

Saturday June 29th

These 24 hours small fresh breezes and squalls
Course at N West by N
P.M. at work in the rigging at all at work in the main rigging Lat 16^h 19' North Saw a sail Lon 45^h 43' West

Sunday June 30th 1850

These 24 hours fresh breezes and squalls
Course at N West by N
P.M. wet hold at all at work in the rigging at the sabbath Lat 18^h 24' North Lon 49^h 49' West

Monday July 1st 1850

These 24 hours small breezes and fine clear
weather Course at N West
P.M. the sabbath saw a sail at all setting up the starboard main rigging Lat 20^h 15' North
Lon 49^h 39'