

Bark Globe of New Bedford
December the 7. 1850 Last 24 hours
Light breezes, and fine clear weather Shifting the Baals on the starboard Breaking out sugar and water, great insight nothing of any amount happened thru the day. December

Sunday the 8. The 24 hours light winds and pleasant ship steering South West Lat 29.6 Got lunar observation by getting distance between the sun and moon

Wednesday

Monday the 9. December the 9. These last 24 hours Strong breezes and rainy saw a sail south east and saw a fin back nothing happened through Tuesday December the 10. to the 11. These last 24 hours First breezes East part light breezes S.W. West saw a sail to windward At work in the mison rigging and at the geer Broke out for flour Lat 32.43 S Nothing of any amount thru Lat 33.6 E

Day

Wednesday December the 11. 50 First part of the 24 hours light breezes and calm clear weather At work in the mison rigging and making applied for the try work But the Ekspertise in sions of climbing the mate he told him to go and he told him he would not kept him here until night and letting go Lat 31.56 Got lunar between Thursday December the 12. These last 24 hours Light breezes Last Strong breezes backing up in mison sail turning down the mison rigging steering S.W. Nothing occurred worth mention thru the day Lat 32.54

The ship Captainway for hours but he told me that not about because we had more

Captain Hand of Sand Vetch 2
Friday December the 13. These last 24 hours Light breezes and clear weather at work on the mison. Saw fin Backs Ship steering South by East Nothing of Happened worthy of remark Lat 33.31 South

Saturday December the 14. These last 24 hours Strong breezes and rainy Broke out for water Pork and Beef Saw a fin Back Ship steering South west Lat 34.44
Lon 34.44 West

Sunday the 15. December These last 24 hours light breezes and pleasant ship steering S.W. saw Porpoises nothing happened worth noticing Lat 34.22 S Lon 36.0 W

Monday December the 16. Steering W. W. Y. Y. saw Porpoises These last 24 hours fine clear weather
The Captain and First mate had a rough about mending the gib mending the gib Lat 34.48 S
Lon 36.42 W

Tuesday December the 17. 50. These last 24 hours Light breezes and pleasant saw Porpoises ship steering S.W. West Lat 36.0 S S 36.0
Lon 36.0 W

Wednesday December the 18. 50. These last 24 hours Strong breezes and rainy saw fin backs and Broke out for Bread Lat 36.40 New Bedford

Thursday December the 19. 50 First part the 24 hours Light breezes and rainy last part fine gales saw fin backs and at work on the whaling gear Lat 37.5 South
Lon 37.39 West

Friday December the 20. 50. These last 24 hours
Light breezes and calm first part light part fine gales ship steering S.W. saw fin backs Broke out for wine and and Bread Lat 37.29 South
Lon 37.50 West