

Bark Globe of St Beauford Handy Master
Saturday January the 5 These last 24 hours Strong but ~~the~~ Broke out for Bread P.M. Lat 38.13 S

1 M Light breezes and pleasant nothing in sight S West
Sunday January

Sunday January the 6. These last 24 hours P.M. Light breezes and pleasant and Calms Saw Porpoises and Sunfish
The Ship Steering West nothing going on worth mention Lat 37.55 A.M. Strong breezes saw Porpoises broke out in the fore hold from West hemp rope to make sword ship Steering appears sunfish

Monday January the 7. 1851 These last 24 hours P.M. Light breezes and Calms Saw Dolphins and Grampuses and Sunfish
A.M. Strong breezes saw Ailler and spout Lat 38.20, South
Lon. 53.33 West

Tuesday January the 8. 1851. These last 24 hours P.M. Strong breezes saw a sail supposing it to be A. Cape Horners sail to Cape Horn ward Bound S Course North Lat 37.20, South
Lon. 53.44 West
A.M. Broke Out for water in the fore hole and filled the ground ^{salt} Water

Wednesday January the 9 1851 These last 24 hours
P.M.
A.P.M. Light breezes and fine clear weather Finished stowing down in the fore hold and porpoises Lat 37.00 South A.M. Strong breeze with squalls of rain Lon. 53.5 West Stowed down cargo in the main hold Ship Steering S.W.

Thursday January the 10. 1851 These last 24 hours the Wind blowing again laying to under. Lost reef main top sail Nothing going on worth mentioning A.M. Strong breeze sowing salt water in the main hold saw sunfish Lat 38.50 S

Friday January the 11 1851 These last 24 hours Strong Breezes finished Sowing the main hold Broke out in the After hold for pork and beef A.M. Strong breeze with down the fore top sail and mended it Lat 38.35 South
Lon. 54.11 West

Bark Globe of St Beauford Handy Master
Saturday January the 12 1851 These last 24 hours Strong breezes saw A sail to wind ward finished mending the fore top sail and sent it up again Ship Steering S West A.M.
the wind blowing a strong breeze saw several saw plenty of seals saw a sun fish Nothing going on Lat 39.20 South
Lon. 54.12 West
Lon. 53.55

Sunday January the 13. 1851. These last 24 hours Commenced with strong breezes nothing in sight wind North West Ship Steering South by west A.M. the wind blowing
A Gale under short sail South East Lat 41.13 West

Monday January the 14. These last 24 hours Commenced with a gale of wind and Cold weather A.M. first part Calms last part fresh breeze the wind at N West Ship Steering South west making Spun yarn nothing sight Lat 43.48 South
Lon. 55.57 West

Tuesday January the 15 1851. These last 24 hours P.M.
first part fresh gales Making Spun yarn A.M. last part Strong breezes Ship Steering S S West Nothing going on not making Spun yarn Lat 44.47 South
Lon. 56.47 West

Wednesday January the 16. These last 24 hours
Commenced with light breezes making Spun yarn Broke out for flour saw a sail to wind ward with West A.M. Light breezes saw porpoises and sunfish at the hour of raised a sail at stern Steering to the S West Nothing going on of any amount Lat 46.20 South
Lon. 57.4 West

Thursday January the 17. 1851. These last 24 hours
P.M. Commenced with Light Breezes the first part Calms Strong Breezes and spots of rain saw some Penguins A.M. last part strong breezes nothing in sight and with ing going on North mentioning spots of rain Lat 47.34 South
Lon. 59.00 West