

112
Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
A.M. Fresh gales and pleasant wind East Nothing going on Ship steering North East nothing in sight Lat 38.31.2
Lon 48.23. West

Sunday January the 27. 41 These last 24 hours Fresh gales and clear weather at 2 in the afternoon saw ship towards ward and the Capt. and ran down to sea and the he us it was the Sallyharry of New Bedford bound around the horn she was 8 days out and had 50 lbs of sperm oil on board Capt. Andrews nothing going on. All strong breezes and and cloudy nothing going on the wind East by North Sept. 1841
North East No Lat

Monday January the 28. 41 These last 24 hours Clear weather with strong breezes and foggy and misty nothing going on nothing in sight A.M. Fresh gales and fine clear weather nothing on Amount Steady North East wind South East Lat 38.12. South
Lon 47.05 West

Tuesday January the 29. 41 These last 24 hours A.M. Fresh eratic with squalls of rain saw a whale carcass nothing going on. Nothing going on with mentioning fresh gales and fine Clear weather Lat 38.12. South
Lon 47.05 West

Wednesday January the 30. 41 These last 24 hours Light breezes and pleasant weather saw killers and a carcass of a whale somewhat nothing going on of any kind. Light breezes and fine ant weather saw grampasses nothing going on Ship steering Southeast Wind S. by East Lat 38.41. South
Lon 46.52 West

Thursday January the 31. 41 These last 24 hours Small breezes and pleasant weather saw sunfish. Broke out of water in the fore hole A.M. Small breezes and squally of rain saw killers and jumpers at work making a fish down Lat 38.01 South
Lon 46.30 West

February the 1st Friday These last 24 hours Small breezes and a fine Clear weather saw a back to seaward and run off but did not seeing more of it Lat 38.18. South Lon 46.5 West

113
Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
A.M. Broke out for Port and Reef in the after hole Fore in cock was sail to leeward and at six. saw another to windward at ten o'clock A.M. spoke one of the ship it was the Isaac Hound of New Bedford West Master Thirtymonths out with thirty six hundred lbs of whale oil bound home A.M. saw three sails to of them was bound North East and the other was bound to South West saw grampasses at work getting the fore top gallant yard ready to send up

February the 2nd 1841 These last 24 hours Light breezes with squalls of rain saw sail to windward saw sunfish sent up the top gallant yard and mended the top gallant sail A.M. Small breezes and pleasant ship steering East by North wind N.W. saw porpoises and saw spouts and lifted up for them but they did not prove to be whales Lat 38.04 South
Lon 46.26 West

Sunday February the 3rd 1841 These last 24 hours A.M. Fresh gales and fine clear weather at 2 in the clock raised a sail to leeward and at 4 in the of raised another to the leeward supposed to whale on home ward bound nothing going on except to work ship A.M. Fresh gales and pleasant weather at 6 o'clock saw two sails two the leeward we supposed to be whale on bound around Cape Horn and at 6 in the A.M.
saw killers ship steering East by South Lat 38.4 South
Lon 44.30 West

Monday February the 4. 1841 These last 24 hours Fresh A.M. saw breeches sending up the fore top gallant sail A.M. Light part strong breezes and fine clear weather making sail gaskets ship steering East by South Lat 38.5 South
Lon 42.9 West

Tuesday February the 5th These last 24 hours A.M.
Fresh gales and fine Clear weather saw squid saw a back of the fore hole but did not Broke out in the fore hole for water A.M. Light part fine Clear weather saw sunfish and squid at work with main top sail hauled back steering East by South Lat 40.5 West