

174
Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
Wednesday February the 4th 1851 These last 24 hours fresh and cloudy at work on the fore top sail balliard block saw by A.M. Fresh gales and pleasant weather saw squid Nothing of any amount in the ship steering South East Lat by Ob Lat 35.13 S Lon by Obs 39.14 West

Thursday February the 7th 1851 These last 24 fresh gales and fine clear weather Nothing going on of any amount Nothing in sight A.M. Squid with rain saw a jumper and some squid Nothing going on Lat by Ob 36.14 S Lon by Chron 20 W

Friday February the 8th 1851 These last 24 hours The Wind blowing again from the N. East Laying to saw porpoises Nothing going on A.M. the wind blowing half gale with rain Nothing going on any amount Nothing going on Lat by Ob 36.26 S Lon by account 36.30 W

Saturday February the 9th 1851 These last 24 hours Fresh gales and rainy busted the gib and sent it in ship steering East by North East A.M. Light breeze with squalls of rain wind South steering N. East Nothing going on Lat by Ob 36.46 S Lon by Lunar 34.20 West

Sunday February the 10th 1851 These last 24 hours P.M. first part small breezes with some rain saw forbush and grasshoppers and half past three saw a sail to wind ward Nothing going on A.M. fresh gales and fine clear weather mended the gib Nothing in sight steering N. East Broke out in the fore hole for water Lat by Ob 36.40 Lon by Lunar 36.4

Monday February the 11th 1851 These last 24 hours P.M. small breezes and fine clear weather mending the gib and for a spanner gaff Lat by Ob 35.40 Lon by A.M. strong breezes and clear weather Finished mending the gib and sent it out and broke it for bread Nothing in sight steering S by East Lat by Ob 34.54 Lon by Lunar 35.11 West

175
Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
Tuesday February the 12th 1851 These last 24 hours fresh gales and pleasant running mending the blowlines to the mainsail Nothing in sight Broke out for flour and molasses A.M. strong blowing again from the N. West ship steering East Nothing going on Wednesday February the 13th 1851 These last 24 hours blowing a le. Nothing going on steering East A.M. Moderate breeze and rainy steering S by South Nothing going on of any amount Lat by Ob 35.40 Lon by Lunar 29.18 W

Thursday February the 14th 1851 These last 24 hours Small breezes and rainy Broke out in the after hole for Beef and and vinegar ship steering East by South A.M. small breezes and rainy Nothing in sight mending mats for the main top Lon by Lunar 27.36 West

Friday February the 15th 1851 These last 24 hours Small breezes and rainy Nothing going on and Nothing in sight A.M. fresh gales and cloudy making top mats Nothing in sight ship steering East by North to wind South East running to point Lon by Account 26.43 West Lat by Account 36.06 South

Saturday February the 16th 1851 These last 24 hours Fresh gales and pleasant Nothing going on Wind South East steering S by North A.M. Fresh gales and cloudy Wind N. East steering North East Nothing going on Lon by Lat by Ob 33.9 South

Sunday February the 17th 1851 These last 24 hours
P.M. Fresh gales and cloudy Nothing going on Nothing in sight A.M. Fresh gales and clear weather at seven o'clock saw a sail to windward steering E by South East with cut being able to ask what what she was setting up the gib stays Lat by Ob 33.10 Nothing else Lon by Lunar 23.9 W