

Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
 Thursday February the 27. 1851 These last 24 hours comm^{ed} with strong breezes nothing going on of any amount A.M.
 Moderate breezes and pleasant at ten A.M. saw seals to windward steering S. East supposed to be ^{East} under way bound to the East Indies Lat 33.12 Lon 3.30 W

Friday February the 28. These 24 hours comm^{ed} with fresh gales and pleasant weather saw porpoises ship securing E. N. E. wind N. E. Broke out for water in the fore A.M. saw porpoises Broke out for sea nothing steering E. by S. Lat 34.17 Lon by Chron. 2. 11. 30 W

Sunday March 1st 1851. These last 24 hours comm^{ed} with light breezes and fine clear weather. saw porpoises and Broke out in the fore hole for the Breeds Burn E. by S. wind S. E. A.M. Light breezes and in clear weather saw porpoises nothing going on the third A.M. steering South East by East Lat by Ch 33.41. Lon by Lunar 3.34 W 31

Monday March 1851 These Last 24 hours commenced with moderate breezes and pleasant nothing going on of any amount comm^{ed} cloudy A.M. Last part fresh gales and fine pleasant weather nothing in sight sailing up for making spungarn steering S. E. East wind East 7.00
 Lat by Ch 34.37. Lon by Lunar 3.33 East

Tuesday March the 3d 1851 These last 24 hours commenced with strong breezes and cloudy nothing Balling off yarns to make spungarns A.M. strong breezes and pleasant weather nothing making any runner for the ^{main} top gallant halliard nothing in sight ship steering S. wind East Lat by Ch 36.32 Lon by Lunar 3.32 East

Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
 Wednesday March the 4. 1851. These last 24 hours comm^{ed} with strong breezes and pleasant weather saw porpoises A.M. strong breezes and pleasant weather sent down the main top gallant sail and repaired it ship steering E. S. East saw a fin Bubb Lat Lon by Chronometer 3.33 East

Thursday March the 6 1851. These last 24 commenced with strong breezes and pleasant weather sent up the main top gallant sail and sent it again nothing sight A.M. strong breezes and pleasant weather steering in sight making spungarn steering E. S. East N. West Lat by Ch 36.52. Lon by Chro 6.47 1/2 East

Friday March the 7. 1851. These last 24 hours comm^{ed}
 with strong breezes and pleasant weather saw porpoises making spungarn A.M. making spungarn fresh gales from the S. West with rain nothing sight steering E. by South Lat by Ch 38.23. Lon by Chro 10. 1 1/2 East

Saturday March 8th 1851. These last 24 hours fresh gales and and squally nothing on saw nothing thing A.M. strong breezes and cloudy with a heavy sea rolling saw porpoises wind variable. Easterly and S. East Lat by Ch 38.14. Lon by Chro 11. 2 1/2 East

Sunday March the 9th 1851. These last 24 hours A.M. moderate breezes and pleasant weather with nothing in sight Broke out in the fore hole for water and in the after hole for coffee making spungarn A.M. Calms making going on ship steering E. S. East nothing in sight wind varying from S. W to W S W Lat by Ch 38.48. Lon by Chro 12.18. East