

Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
 Thursday March the 20. 51 These last 24 hours - Comm with strong breezes and squally winds of E. Steering E N E at N strong breeze and with shavens shell running sent up the main top gallant yard aloft serving the main sp. etc.
 nothing in sight steering by the wind East Lat by Ch 32. 03 S Lon by Chro 28. 03 East

Friday March the 21. 51 These 24 hours fresh gales and pleasant weather. I mended the fore top gallant sail and put it down in the salt room. A N fresh gale and clear weather. Sent down the main top gallant yard and sail steering S. E. wind N. E. at last set main top sail and reef fore & fore spencer
 Lat by Ch 31. 03 S Lon by Chro 28. 14 East

Saturday March the 22. 51 These 24 hours the wind blowing again. I mended the fore hole for Bark and Bell and sent in the fly gill. A M fresh fore course wind N E by East nothing in sight steering East by Smith clear weather
 Lat by Ch 30. 51 S Lon by Chro 29. 00 East

Sunday March the 23. 51 These 24 hours fresh gales and cloudy winds N E by E. Steering by the wind A M fresh gales and cloudy course E at East winds N. E by North saw porpoises nothing going in Lat by Ch

Monday March the 24. 51 These 24 hours fresh gales and cloudy winds N E in A M fresh gales and pleasant weather saw porpoises mended the main top gallant sail wind N by East steering by the wind Lat by Ch 31. 51 E Lon by Chro 31. 43 E

Bark Globe of New Bedford Handy Master
 Tuesday March the 25. 51 These 24 hours fresh gale and pleasant but bloody. Nothing in sight nothing going with moderate showers of rain P M at four handed the main course gill and fore top sail at half past 6 set the main course thick cloudy at 10 at seven P M we had a heavy shower of rain for about 2 hours. South wind A M fresh gales and cloudy wind of course N E by East nothing in sight nothing going on north mentioning
 Lat by Ch

Wednesday March the 26. These 24 hours fresh gales and cloudy. mended the fore ropes on the main top gallant yard and broke out in the fore hole fore water and stowed the N B. the first and second finate the second mate was stowing off the hole and the mate told him that he would break his and told him he did not due his duty and told him he would would put him where he could find him. and P M at nine o'clock had a squall of rain with some wind A M fresh gales and pleasant weather. last part rain course E N East S E East
 Lat by Ch 30. 30 S Lon by Chro 30. 41 East

Thursday March the 27. These 24 hours moderate breezes and cloud bent the fly gill and sent up the main top gallant yard and sail. Course P M E N East wind S E by South broke out in the after hole for flour S M moderate breezes and rain Cooper cooping meet to set course East N East steering by the wind. N by East all sail set Lat by Ch 30. 12 S Lon by Chro 30. 35 East

Friday March the 28. 51 These 24 hours small breezes and fine clear weather saw porpoises killing off yards A M fresh gales and pleasant weather nothing in sight. A M on the main on rigging Lat by Ch 30. 32 S Lon by Chro 30. 00 East