

Bark - Globe of New Bedford its passage

19th Feb small breezes and rainy sales in sight saw cow fish coarse by the winds of the small breezes and heavy at night mine A.M. lowered the larboard and waist boat and went ashore amending and got off two boats load of wood all sail

Friday January 30th 52 These 24 hours small breezes and squally A.M. got off four boats load of wood A.M. small breezes and rainy spoke out the Bark rose of London Jerry Master saw out 60 blus sperm had again got a bit of contrast and in return let them aboard soap and some tobacco wind N.W. coarse by the wind

Saturday January 31st 52 These 24 hours small breezes and calmly cutting up wood on deck A.M. small breezes and calm gamed with the janes rose again breaking out in the fore hold Sunday January February 1st 52 These 24 hours small breezes and heavy saw some whales carcasses at work in the hole A.M. the sabbath saw a number of ships on the harbor down but coarse in small breezes and squally saw porpoises wind W. Coarse by the wind Monday January February 2^d 52 These 24 hours fresh gales and squally saw porpoises wind W.N.W. coarse by the wind A.M. small breezes and squally with rain asail in sight to windward close into the land drove down wood into the fore peak took out pork and beef W.

Tuesday February 3^d 52 These 24 hours small breezes and calm saw porpoises cutting and splitting wood A.M. small breezes and heavy breaking out in the fore hold

Wednesday February 4th 52 These 24 hours fresh gales and clear weather sawed of the hole and at half past four A.M. raised whales and lowered and the waist boat got one and took him along side West boat

Globe of New Bedford in its passage small breezes and clear weather then the whale and at half mine raised sperm whales and lowered but came on board out success asail in sight to wind ward

Thursday February 5th 52 These 24 hours fresh gales and A.M. raised whales and lowered but came on board with success and at six started the try works and at ten the cooper and one of the fire most hands lowered the larboard and the fore lower another boat and sent after them but when they got up to them they jolled theirances into and against the boat and threaten to run the first man through my them so he returned to the ship again to procure some arms but lost sight of the boat A.M. the try works going saw breeches wind N.W. coarse by the wind Friday February 6th 52 These 24 hours fresh breezes and squally finished trying saw breeches wind N.W. coarse by the wind A.M. small breezes and clear weather saw blackfish break out and sawed the sail pieces in the storage all sail set Set by Chron Saturday February 7th 52 These 24 hours fresh gales and clear weather saw sprouts supposed to be fin backs and breeches struck the oil down between decks N.W. coarse by the A.M. fresh gales and squally wind N.W. coarse by the wind a work on the shaling operations Set by Chron 1.27.5 Lon by Chron

Sunday February 8th 52 These 24 hours fresh gales and clear weather saw blackfish and porpoises making boat sails wind N.W. coarse by the wind broke out for flour and vinegar A.M. fresh gales and squally with the rain the sabbath N.E. wind coarse N.W. by Monday February 9th 52 These 24 hours small breezes and rainy sand in sight wind W.A.M. small breezes and clear weather saw the bark janes rose of London Capt. Perry at work on the shaling operations wind N.W. coarse N.W. by W.

Set by Chron 1.26.5 Lon by Chron 1.23.40 E