

Ship Courier of Dorchester from Boston cruising in the Winds Remarks on board Friday Decr 5th 1854 N.E.W. Commences with strong gales and foggy at 5 PM. Little in all light and have the 2 sail in sight headed to the W.

N.E.W. Middle part more moderate at day light set the top sail two ships in sight

Latter part fresh breezes saw 3 ships going quick to windward. Looked over to see how far they were from the English ships in sight

Lat of Ob 37.02
 Long of Obs 3.24 Long of Lunas Ob 2.41

Winds Remarks on board Saturday Decr 6th W. Commences with strong breeze spoke the ship, Mechanique of 30 tons, N.B. 13 months out got 1000 of oil double reef the top sails and took tea in sail and set the watch

Middle part fresh gales

Latter part strong gales no end the day being too 3 sail in sight

Lat of Ob 36.58
 Long of Obs 3.50 Long of Lunas Ob 2.55

South Atlantic Ocean for whaler Winnet Luce Master Winds Remarks on board Sunday Decr 7th
 W. Commences with strong gales 3 sail in sight and took more ship and headed to the S.W.

Middle part the same

N.W. S.W.

Latter part more moderate set double reef top sail jib and main sail
 no end this day 3 sail in sight heading to the N.W.

Lat of Ob 36.28
 Long of Obs 3.56

Winds Remarks on board Monday Decr 8th 1854 N.W. Commences with strong breeze main top sail heading to the N.W. took the reef out of the at 4 PM reef the main top sail and set the watch 5 sail in sight

Middle part moderate at day light made all sail

S.W.

Latter part light airs five ships in sight. No end this day saw four sails

Lat of Ob 36.03