

Ship Courier of Dorchester from Boston cruising in Winds Remarks on board Sun^y Jan^y 18th W.N.W. Commenced with moderate breezes heading to the S.W.

one boat employed in the watch employed in ship duty

W.N.W.

Wrote to hand the paper at day light & sail in sight 20 boiling

S.W.

Latter part light air with moderate employed in making a few spears and fitting the rigging to end this day & ship in sight 2 boiling saw two carcasses

Lat by Obs 41.0.00

Long by Obs 6 miles W.

Winds Remarks on board Mon^y Jan^y 19th Commenced with calm saw one ship & a whale at sun set double reef the top sails moderate breeze steering W. 5 miles in sight 2 boiling and one cutting finished a few spears

E.N.E.

N.W.

Wrote to hand fresh birds at 2 AM. Laps, tea and hauled about foggy

Latter part strong breezes and foggy bent a few spears to end this day

No. 65

The South Atlantic Ocean for whales Witnet Luce made

Winds Remarks on board Sun^y Jan^y 20th 1834
N.W. Commenced with strong breezes and foggy in employed mending, stowed boat at 11 AM. took in the fore top sail heading to the N.W.

W.N.W.

Wrote to hand the paper
at day light and double reef top sails

S.W.

Latter part moderate made at sail the night employ in mending stowed boat to end this day saw nothing

Lat by Obs 39.50

Long by Obs 45 miles W.

Winds Remarks on board Wed^y Jan^y 22nd 1834 S.W. Commenced with light air heading to the off at sun set took in the top gulland sails

S.E.

Wrote to hand moderate breezes at 5 AM. saw a whale lower could not strike

S.E.

Latter part fine weather saw in sight
to end this day employed mending all boat

Lat by Obs 40.00

No. 66