

Ship Courier of Dorchester relaying in the Wind's Remarks on board Wednes May 6th 1835 N.E. by E Commences with fine weather turn up the barboard boat to paint all paper employed in bedding hole and other parts of ship deck at 6 AM with in sail

Middle part fresh breezes at day light
made sail

Latter part fine weather the watch employed in ship cut painter the barboard boat at 11 AM saw sperm whales lowered of at 12 noon and this day

N.W.

No 06

Wind's Remarks on board Thursday May 7th Commences with fine weather about past at 4 PM seeing three whales to the ship and commenced cutting two of in night at 8 PM finished cutting and took in sail two whales along side

XXX

Middle part fresh breezes and usually the watch employed in clearing away the deck at day light called all hands and commenced cutting

S.S.W.

Latter part fresh gales and a heavy swell finished cutting the bodies so and this day was day

Lod by Ob 25 42

Mosambique Channel Wilnot Luce Master Wind's Remarks on board Friday May 8th S.S.W. Commences with fresh gales and in the heads all hands employed in clearing up the deck and bedding away the heads at 6 AM and the watch

Middle part heavy gales called all hands and turned up the boats tops in the fore sail

Latter part more moderate all hands employed in clearing the decks taking and setting up shots so and this day

Lod by Ob 27 03

Long by Ob 35 25

Wind's Remarks on board Saturday May 9th S.E. by S. Commences with fresh gales
all hands employed in clearing up bedding and setting up shots at 6 PM more moderate sails at 11 AM and set the fore sail

111

Middle part rain cold down the works are started then again clearing to the deck

S.S.W.

Latter part stormy breezes all hands employed in bedding and setting up shots so and this day
saw nothing

Lod by Ob 26 01

Long by Ob 35 45