

Ship Courier of Dorchester cruising in the Woods Fromwards on board Friday May 22^d 1835 E by N Commences with fine weather one merchant vessel to leeward at 6 AM took in sail heading to the S.E. under double reefed top sails main sail and jib

Winds fair the same
 at day light made all sail

N E

Latter part fine weather heading to the S.E. the watch
 employed in ship duty
 so and this day saw one fine bark

Lat by Obs 27 18

Long by Chron 34.45 Long by Lunar 35.00

Winds N.E. Fromwards on board Saturday May 23^d Commences with fine weather heading to the S.E. at 6 AM double reefed the top sails took in the jib and main sail

Winds fair moderate at day light made all
 sail

Latter part calm the watch employed in ship duty saw black fish so and this day one barge in sight

Lat by Obs 28 54

Long by Chron 35.55

Mozambique Channel for whales Withed Luce Master Fromwards on board Sunday May 24th Commences with calm the watch
 employed in ship duty
 one barge in sight
 at 4 AM took in sail
 heading to the S.E. the watch
 employed in ship duty
 at 6 AM took in the
 top gallant sail

S

Winds fair fine breeze
 heading to the S.E. the watch
 employed in ship duty
 at day light made all
 sail

Latter part fine weather
 at 9 AM took in the top gallant sail and the watch
 employed in ship duty
 at 10 AM took in the
 top gallant sail

Lat by Obs 28 01

Long by Chron 36.35

Winds S.W. Fromwards on board Monday May 25th
 Commences with fine weather
 in company with George & Martha
 at 6 AM took in sail
 heading to the S.E. the watch
 employed in ship duty
 at 10 AM took in the
 top gallant sail

S.E.

Winds fair fresh gales with rain at day light at double reefed the top sails

Latter part generally even at 6 PM the watch employed in ship duty the George & Martha in company so and this day

Lat by Obs 25 02

Long by Chron 37.00