

Ship Courier of Dorchester at anchor in Ivemark on board Wednes July 29th Commences with strong gales and a heavy sea and the more moderate

Middle part moderate and squally

Latter part strong breezes and squally so end this day

Ivemark on board Thurs July 30th 1831 Commences with strong breezes all hands employed in stowing down the after hold

Middle part moderate
& squally on board

Latter part fine weather
all hands employed in coopering on and stowing down the after hold so end this day

Augustine Bay Walnut Lanes Master Jc.
Ivemark on board Friday July 31st 1831 Commences with fine weather all hands employed in coopering and stowing down

Middle part the same

Latter part fine weather
all hands employed in coopering and stowing down the after hold so end this day lying at anchor in Augustine Bay

Ivemark on board Saturday August 1st 1831 Commences with fine weather
all hands employed in coopering
and stowing down

Middle part the same

Latter part fine weather
all hands employed in beaching out between deck so end this day