

Ship Courier of Dorchester on a whaling voyage
 Winds S Remarks on board Thurs Sept 3rd 1855.
 N by E Commenced with strong breezes the watch employed
 in repairing sails
 course S S W.

Middle part the same

Latter part fresh breezes
 the watch employed on sails unboard the fore sail
 and bent and shat
 so ended this day saw an English bark steering to the S W

Lat by Obs 30 28
 Long by Obs 84 20

Winds S Remarks on board Friday Sept 4th
 N. E. Commenced with strong breezes down S S W all hands employed on sails

N E Middle part moderate

S S W

Latter part strong breezes
 both in the top gallant sails heading to the S E
 the watch employed in repairing sails

Lat by Obs 31 36

11 31 sail

1 31

in the Indian Ocean Wilmet Luce Master 1855

Winds S Remarks on board Sat. 2nd Sept 5th
 S S W Commenced with fresh
 breezes the watch employed
 in repairing sails at 10 AM set the main top gallant sail heading to the S E

S S W Middle part moderate

S

Latter part the same breeze but to the W S W
 the watch employed in repairing sails so ended this day heading to the S W

S S W

Lat by Obs 32 06
 Long by Obs 84 00

Winds S Remarks on board Sun. Sept 6th
 S Commenced with pleasant breezes and a heavy swell
 course S S W the watch employed in these duties
 saw no sail steering to the S W.

N. E.

Middle part fresh breezes

N. E.

Latter part fine weather
 course S S W by S
 so ended this day saw nothing but birds

Lat by Obs 34 06
 N. E.