

Monday Dec 2nd Received on board various and the same with the before mentioned men still absent

Tuesday Dec 3rd Employed variously the men still absent latter part employed painting ship

Wednesday Dec 4th Employed painting ship the men still absent latter part employed painting

Thursday Dec 5th Employed variously the men still absent middle and latter part employed variously

Friday Dec 6th Employed mending the sparker latter part lent the sails the men still absent

Saturday Dec 7th Employed variously the before mentioned men still absent latter part washed off decks

Sunday Dec 8th Was waiting for men the men still absent latter part the same

Monday Dec 9th Was giving orders to those on board the men still absent latter part was waiting for men

Tuesday Dec 10th Was waiting for men the men still absent latter part the same

Wednesday Dec 12th Took on board a package of flaps the men still absent latter part employed on various small jobs

Thursday Dec 13th Was waiting for men middle part fine weather latter part the same at 8 AM the harbour master and 15 men came on board took up the anchors and hauled in to the wharf and made her fast stern to Friday Dec 14th Received on board 8 men from the shore and 2 deserters Chambers Pully Kortimer Frank Cook Carpenter and Fred got underway stood out of the harbour stowed the anchors washed off decks and run down 50 fms chain

Saturday Dec 15th Was laying off and on employed fitting boats mending the lower boat V.C. middle and latter part was off and a boat from the shore came alongside bringing a note from the Capt.