

Saturday Jan 5th

This day fresh breeze ruff and thick off Hog island saw nothing no loft up laying under short sail wind W-

Sunday Jan 6th

This day off the opposite at 2 P.M. hept off S to $\frac{1}{2}$ to for one of the islands 5.0 miles off under short sail 2 P.M. hove too saw a sulphur bottom... broke out water and repaired main stacal wind NW

Monday Jan 7th

This day first part thick fog 6.30 a.m. started and broke out 3 casks of water wind W. working to the N & to under moderate sail 5 P.M. saw hog island 3 points on weather bow

Tuesday Jan 8th

This day fresh breeze from NW crowing off the land saw fin backs and 2 sperm whales going to the W-not much doing about the day.

Wednesday Jan 9th

This day foggy all day wind NW nothing in air getting ready for elephant hunting

Thursday Jan 10th

This day a fresh breeze from NW rainy and nasty no loft up at 5 a.m. saw poverty island at 12 or noon passed last island bound for desolation getting ready for elephant hunting steering S to by S. under 3 square sails 20 miles

Friday Jan 11th

This day moderate breeze from NW all square sails set steering S to $\frac{1}{2}$ S. employed in getting ready for elephant hunting stowed boat sails below 2 P.M.
fresh breeze

Saturday Jan 12th

This day fresh breeze and now smaller from NW steering S to by to $\frac{1}{2}$ to under square sails and stacal doing odd jobs and partly unrigging boats & coports

Sunday Jan 13th

This day fresh breeze from NW steering S to employed in getting ready for elephant hunting and coports 2 P.M.
2.20 miles from Kinglands island

Monday Jan 14th

This day fresh breeze from NW steering S to $\frac{1}{4}$ to under square sails at 12.30 P.M. hauled up and bent our cables at 2.30 P.M. raised Kinglands island 7 P.M. took in sail and hove too off the land

Tuesday Jan 15th

This day bratting up along the land at 7 P.M. came to anchor laying with 30 fathom of chain out

Wednesday Jan 16th

This day breaking out casks and doing several odd jobs about deck after dinner 3 boats crew went ashore and killed several elephants hauled 2 boats ashore got about load of blubber along side sent several casks ashore