

Dec 12 1908

Brig Daisy
Sat 12

This day begins with S West winds also rain squalls at 1230. PM took on anchor and left Possession harbor went again up to Island harbor and anchored there in 22 fathom of water looking for more Elephants.

Island harbor

Sunday 13. This day begins with very fine light weather latter part wind from the East 2 two boats after Elephant on the ship getting things ready. also minding ship day in Island harbor.

Monday 14 This day begins & ends with heavy East winds also rain & snow two had to work all hands laying dolly & so ends the day.

Tues 15 This day begins with very light Easterly winds all day also rain. 2 two boats after Elephants have the Port anchor up clear from the bottom and let the ship drift up about the starboard anchor then slackened the Port anchor down on the bottom, again the Elephant are very scarce.

Wed 16 This day begins with light variable winds. 2 two boats after Elephant latter part weather still fine.

Thurs 17. To day the weather has been sprinkled with light snow squalls 2 two boats after Elephant.

Dec 18 1908

Daisy laying at anchor in Island harbor

Friday 18 To day the weather has been very squally wind from the S West 1 one boat after Elephant. = " = "

Sat 19. This day begins with snow squalls it is finely cleared about then started to hail all through the day every kind of weather 2 two boats after Elephant.

Sunday 20. weather fine boiled also 1 one boat after Blubber Charles Elizabeth the 4th below deck. It has been below ten days with a bad hand & low.

Mon 21 Good weather started down oil 2 two boats after Elephant & 2 Steamer whalers. = "

Tues 22. weather very good 3 three boats after Elephant. = "

Wed 23. To day we have had a general abatement of weather snow, wind and fully weather. All hands on board minding Blubber & 1 one boat & Bark.

Thurs 24. Snow squalls in the morning up to 9 AM good weather the rest of the day. boiled also 2 two boats after Blubber.

Friday 25 To day begins with strong westerly wind 2 boats after Elephants on the ship started down oil middle & latter part weather better.