

Friday July 22

This day begins with light weather the wind from the North cutting blubby sea with main the wind West. One Boat steered at the masthead.
Lat 33.42 N. Long 57.20 West

Sat 23. To day begins with the wind from the West sea on the port tack heading West. The works going at full power. at 10:30 AM we were steering South. raised 2 large whales going to the west towards 3 three Boats after a little while the Boats managed to galley the whales so chased on after the whales all the rest of the day as the whales were just where the Boats were all the time the water not themselves but for us. Boats returned to the ship with no whale
Lat 33.17 N. Long 50.47 W

Sunday 24 This day begins with very light winds from the West at 10:30 AM raised a large sperm whale going into the West. lowered the 3 three Boats and chased on after the whale the 3 Boats struck the whale the wounded sperm. The Lion came out so off went the whale Boats came on board and began running the oil down into the casks. at 4:30 PM raised the same whale again lowered the 3 three Boats and tried to strike the whale again there being no wind could not get within striking distance of the whale. Boats returned to the ship just at dark we were steaming also one whaling vessel cabled if the canoe

Lat 33.42 N. Long 50.56 West

Mon 25 To day begins with moderate breezes from the West at 8:00 AM raised a large sperm whale. lowered 3 three Boats found the whale very cunning after a short time the 3 Boats struck and found the whale. 2 Boats got the whale alongside at 11:30 AM the 3 Boats were in sight with the Boats down. all hands got dinner and began cutting got the jaw off and cut some on the head then made all fast for the night no long -

Tues 26 This day begins with fair weather all hands engaged cutting the whale. latter part got the body of junk all aboard. began to get working on the case when the chain parted and we lost the case. we also found the junk quite poor. the canoe in sight for long ends the day. Lat 33.46 N. Long 50.33 West

Wed 27 This day begins with fair whaling breezes. the sea laying with main the sail with doiling cutting blubby. the sea came in sight. Boats the day
Lat 32.20 N. Long 50.33 W