

in the morning light with R in the afternoon went in at night bale gonid with miles daily

Saturday the 23
in the morning raining
the boat went round point

Sunday the 24
in the morning off on a run went down two days lower the night rainy the guidan slow land came going on there

Monday the 25
two boats on the ship and two on shore all cruising off shore water by raining

Tuesday the 26
in this night two steamers on shore started watched saw whales break back and pleasant weather

Wednesday the 27
two large boats of waist and large boats got whales pleasant

Thursday the 28
ship got under way stood off shore harbor pleasant weather waits boat laid the whale

Friday the 29
at twelve o'clock started got back eight pm at ten two or three hard pulling got them to the ship

Saturday the 30
cut the m in harbor and waist of whale in sand all night two or three down the masts most several and from by in the harbor would give all the milk

19
year 1855 July 1 Sunday

this boiled him out the two other boats went off saw some what is continued pleasant weather sun ships 7 ships cruising about some spots saw some of the turn out seven ty barrels of

Monday the 2
the mate stayed on shore in the morning ship got under way saw no whales pleasant boats came on board ten o'clock

Tuesday the 3
in the morning whod man die mate Honolulu went in harbor and an shore barbed on harbor island saw down the oil to both boats there went an evening sang off night break out head

Wednesday the 4
the captain went down at docky lower with two boats in trading version pleasant

Thursday the 5
the captain stayed at the four can angale wind the boats come on board let go anchor saw board all the harbor and shore and B

Friday the 6
in the morning raining blowing heavy south and corn turned out to be from ing with Cambria

Saturday the 7
the morning more than a bit the shore up to the 5 started with

Sunday the 8
the morning washed ship for by every side the boats of in the fog the captain can on board after four days in the morning with can his got to the end of the world