

28 Remarks on Board Ship Dartmouth from

Thursday 19th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours fine weather steering by the wind Rebecca Sims to the Seward taking 2 whales along-side saw nothing of the ship Mount Vernon and former Clinton of Hudson 18 months out 1300 lbs gained with her Middle and latter rigged French rock in sight

Lat 31° 45' N

Long

Friday 20th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours mixed weather heading to the S. E. 2 ship in sight of the ship Hattera Clantucket took in sail latter part the same

Lat 32° 25' South

Long

Saturday 21st Jan.

First part of these 24 hours rugged wave ship standing to the S. E. took in sail Middle and latter a gale from the East heading South nothing in sight

Lat

Long

Sunday 22nd Jan.

First part of these 24 hours a gale from the East Middle and latter part the same nothing in sight under short reefed main top sail

Lat

Monday 23rd Jan.

First part of these 24 hours light winds and foggy Middle and latter part the same saw nothing remarkable

Lat

Long

Tuesday 24th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours light winds and foggy with rain Middle part the same latter fine weather

Lat

New Bedford in the South Sea Sperr Whaling

29

Wednesday 25th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours fine steering S. E. saw 3 sail took in sail a night Middle and latter moderate with foggy weather

Lat

Long

Thursday 26th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours fine weather in company with the Mount Vernon and Mary Michal Clantucket 1200 whale 250th Sperr 14 months out at 5 P.M. raised a whale at 6 came up 3 miles to the windward going quick took in sail heading to the S. W. latter strong winds course S. E. by E the M. V. in company

Lat

Long

Friday 27th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours strong Breeze steering S. W. E. Middle took in sail heading S. E. latter foggy with rain took in main top sail steering to the South in Vernon in sight latter the same standing to the S. E.

Lat

Saturday 28th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours rugged weather in company with the Mount Vernon Middle part the same latter more moderate

Lat

Long

Sunday 29th Jan.

First part of these 24 hours rugged saw a Breeze to windward spoke ship Vineyard Capt Jellison of Edgartown 6 months out 250th Middle and latter parts foggy nothing in sight

Lat

Long