

Remarks on Board Barb. Decadmona

March 17th

Fresh breezes and rain squalls
from the S. and S. by E. and S. by E.
Under short sail and to port -
Pleasant - nothing in sight.

March 18th

Spd. 17.45 S
Long 3.28 W

Pleasant and light breeze from the
S. and S. by E. and S. by E. and S. by E.
The same employed in painting ship's side in side three, merchantmen in sight.

March 19th

Spd. 16.54 S
Long 3.28 W

Pleasant and light breeze from the
S. and S. by E. and S. by E. and S. by E.
The same had vessels in sight.

March 20th

Spd. 15.54 S
Long 5.30 W

Pleasant and moderate breeze
from the S. and S. by E. and S. by E.
The same at 8 a.m. came to anchor in 18 fathoms with 60 fathoms of chain

St. Vincent - Master 1878

March 21st

Pleasant - with fresh breezes
employed in painting ship's side
and during day, also range
James J. Fletcher second Officer

March 22nd

Pleasant and fresh breeze from the
S. and S. by E. and S. by E. and S. by E.
employed in painting ship's side

March 23rd

Fresh breezes and rain squalls employed in various kinds of work about the ship.

Sunday
March 24th

Fresh breezes and rain squalls and watch ashore and liberty.

March 25th

Rain squalls and fresh breezes
employed in various kinds of work

March 26th

Pleasant and light breezes and watch ashore and liberty.