

1896

Remarks on Board Bark Desdemona

Monday June 29th

Come in with moderate breeze and squalls of fog from W. & N. and steering to course E. by E.

Tuesday June 30th

Come in with moderate breeze and fine weather from W. & N. and steering course East.

Wednesday July 1st

Come in with fine weather and gentle breeze from W. & N. and steering course East by S.

Thursday July 2nd

Come in with fine weather and
gentle breeze from W. & N. and steering course E. by S.

Lat 42.12

Long 59.25

Friday July 3rd

Come in with moderate breeze from W. & N. and steering course E. by E.

Saturday July 4th

Come in with moderate breeze from S. & E. and ship heading on eastern tack. There are two men on board that are entirely useless to us because they are so old and helpless they were taken from Newbury poor house and sent here to be sick and in the way their names are Jim Kanaka and Ben Hazard Am. Boatswain

Photo

1896.

Round to Hudson Bay Ch. V. B. Chillard Master

Sunday July 5th

Come in with gentle breeze from
S. & E. and steering course E. & S. & E.

Monday July 6th

Come in with fresh breeze and squalls of rain and fog ship making six hour tacks to hold on.

Photo Tuesday July 7th

Come in with fine weather with a few squalls of fog from W. & S. & W. and steering course E. & S. by E.
Saw during the day two quite large Ice Berge.

Lat 46.55 Long 52.06

Wednesday July 8th

Come in with squalls of fog and rain and light and gentle breeze from S. & S. & W. and steering now stand-course E. & S. by E. Saw about ten Iceing watch Berge through the day.

Thursday July 9th

Come in with squalls of fog and moderate breeze from E. & N. Ship on port tack close hauled. passed during day and night several Ice Berge.

Friday July 10th

Come in with fresh breeze from E. & N.
and ship close hauled on port tack.
Saw several Ice Berge during the night and day.