

Voyage in Bark La Perla Bound to Valparaiso

Saturday Nov 17th

Comes with gentle breeze and fine weather from S.E. We have had fine weather on the whole passage since we left Panama up to date

Lat 27-39. S

Long 103-07. W

Thursday Nov 22nd

Comes with fresh breeze from W. et. W. and steering course east

Lat 33-19. S

Long 97-24. W

*

Wednesday Nov 29th

Comes with calm. At 11. A.M. raised a large Sperm Whale going quick to the S. S. W. and in four risings he was out of sight

Lat 35-05. S

Long 88-57. W

Sunday Dec 2nd

Comes with fresh breeze from S. S. E. and can not go our course and we have had this breeze for the past three days

Lat 34-08. S

Long 83-00. W

Monday Dec 3rd

Comes with moderate breeze from S. E. Passed the Island of Isla A Fuera and found the Chronometer to be 12 fms to the west 22 miles

Tuesday Dec 4th

Comes with fresh breeze from S. E. And ship close hauled on starboard tack at sundown Juan Fernandez bears S. E. 35 miles off

Sunday Dec 9th

Comes with moderate breeze from S. E. And at 5. A.M. anchored off of the Oil Factory in ten fathom in the Bay of Valparaiso. So ends this voyage

* La Perla Signals are the letters H. B. Y. W.

Feb 1st 1907

Went to the Dry Dock to have new timbers put in the La Perla

Tuesday March 5th

Sent letter to my Wife Son and Daughter

March 10th

Came off of the Dry Dock and anchored off the Oil factory

Turn Round Around