

New Bedford Oct 18th 1922

Bill & My Son,
I'm giving you this Book at this time I do so not thinking there is any action on my part that is very bright or that I am very much of a foolish man as you have known me let me write here that you think of the pleasant things I have done and not of actions that in your vision and mind that I have always loved you very much as sometime let me also write that I have always loved you very much as sometime you will find some how to please her and your piece of mind will surely be free and cause you to see how beautiful our world really is Wallace & Ashley

I make a request to you that you keep this book until you get much older than you will since all is better Dad

Good Stomach Medicine

2 Ounce Glycerine

1. " Powdered Rhubarb
2. " Teaspoon Saleratus
1. Teaspoon Peppermint

Mix all together and add one pint boiling water
Dose 1 Teaspoonfull after each meal

William & Ashley