

Ship Cruising for Whales

Thursday April, 3, 1879
 This day from Hazy light, Grad
 Ship Cruising for Whales
 emp doing odd jobs on board nothing in sight, (mild & latter part Hazy moderate Gradle winds Ship in the mid in the western track employed doing ordinary Ships at last board nothing in sight

(Lat = 15° 18' S
 Long = 17° 17' E

Friday April, 4, 1879
 This day from fine weather with moderate Gradle Ship in the west & tack employed
 doing ordinary Ships at last
 board nothing in sight
 latter part fine weather light Gradle winds Steering S. N. E by land emp at work in the & Right nothing in sight

(Lat 15° 43' S
 Long 1° 24' W

Saturday April 5, 1879
 This day from fine weather
 light breeze Steering S. N. E by land emp doing ordinary Ships at last in board me at last in sight, latter part fine weather light Gradle winds Ship Steering W. N. W. by land an Sail in sight doing odd jobs on board.

(Lat 15° 48' S
 Long 2° 44' E

Ship working towards the Isle

Sunday April, 6, 1879
 This day from fine weather
 light breeze Steering west N. E. by land nothing in sight emp doing ordinary Ships at last in board, latter part equally light Gradle winds Ship steering by N. E. by land an Sail in sight

(Lat = 15° 58' S
 Long = 4° 01' E

Monday April 7, 1879
 This day from fine weather light
 Gradle winds Ship steering S. N. E Rose the tale of St Helena in sail in sight latter part fine
 weather light Gradle winds Ship
 standing in towards the Harbor three Sails in sight

Tuesday April, 8, 1879
 This day from fine weather light
 Gradle winds at one A. M. Capt went on shore at four Boat came on board and that off shore several whalers going to anchor in the Harbor, latter part fine weather moderate Gradle Ship off on the Isle sent a Boat on shore after the Capt