

- 20 Fine weather at 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ Set the mainsail and flying jib
Saw one Seal Saw Porpoises
lat 14-12 lon 110-56
- 21 Thick weather all day run off
SW by S part of the day then hailed up air lat 13-48 lon 41-33
- 22 Sunday moderate weather
lay to under jib and trisak
lat 13-50 lon 42
- 23 Fine weather gained with the Bark & B. Tucker lat 13-50 lon 41-35
- 24 Fresh trades spoke the Schooner
Victor of New York bound to Sarinam Saw 11 or 15 whales lat 13-30 lon 42-25 $\frac{1}{2}$ spoke the Schooner De Wickstep
- 25 Fine weather Saw Porpoises at 9 am Set the mainsail lat 12-17
lon 43
- 26 Fine weather Saw 2 whales run off NW most of the day lat 13-7
lon 43-30
- 27 This day begins with fine weather
and continues through the day
Struck 2 Kill fish lost them
lat 13-53 lon 44-20
- 28 Fine weather Saw Porpoises repaired foresail and jib lat 14-36
lon 44-49

- 29 Sunday fine weather Saw a Bark steering NW Schooner under its sail
and jib lat 14-24 lon 45-33
- 30 This day begins with fine weather
middle and latter part Squally
Saw one Seal lat 14-30 lon 45-42
- May the first Fine weather
heading Sall day Saw a Bark running off lat 13-25 lon 45-55
- 2 Squall weather Saw a whaling
Bark standing N lat 12-53
lon 45-52
- 3 Fine weather Saw one Seal a whaler lat 12-18 lon 45-41
- 11 This day begins with fine weather
middle Squally sent down the gafflop sail
and repaired it lat 14-47 lon 45-12
- 5 This day begins with fine weather
and continues through the day Saw
a Brig running off W repaired
the flying jib lat 14-06 lon 44-50
- 6 This day begins with fresh trades
and continues through the day Saw
a whaling Bark lat 12-41 lon 44-20
- 17 This day begins with fresh trades
and continues through the day Gained with the Bark Clave lat 15-17
lon 44-16
- 8 Fresh trades throughout the day Saw 2 whales and one merchant Bark
lat 13-12 lon 43-56