

Log Book of Scho. E. H. Hatfield kept by David B. Sprague commencing Nov 30/1880

Nauticat Line
Tuesday Nov 30th

At 7 o'clock AM all hands aboard made all sail and set off from the wharf with a Pilot in charge. stead out of the harbor and commenced working to the Seal boat towards the wharf. I went with a fresh breeze from the NW and clear weather to end.

Wednesday Dec 1st

First part of these 24 hours past breeze from the NW. Steaming through the Sound at 1 PM. The charge the Pilot gave. Steaming S. E.
Distant at 6 PM. Home land bearing E by N. 1/2 N. 1/2 E. Steaming S by W at 7 PM. The Pilot and set then. The first part of the and steaming to the Seal boat. The part of the S. E. with thick weather and rain. Steaming S by E. The first part and passed the Seal boat. The first part 60. Steaming S by E. The first part breeze and still running to end.

Thursday Dec 2nd

First part of these 24 hours strong breeze and rain from S. E. Steaming S by W at 4 PM. Distant. The first part the S. E. with great violence for about an hour. The first part have to make. Steaming S by E. The first part Distant. The first part
the S. E. with great violence
for about an hour. The first part
have to make. Steaming S by E. The first part Distant. The first part

Remarks on board Scho. E. H. Hatfield of Edgartown
Friday Dec 3rd

All these 24 hours a gale from the NW steaming S by W. under storm sails. The first part steaming S by W. under storm sails. The first part steaming S by W. under storm sails. The first part

Sat 35-40 S. E.

Saturday Dec 4th

First part of these 24 hours a gale from the NW. Steaming S by W. under double reef. The first part steaming S by W. under double reef. The first part steaming S by W. under double reef. The first part

Sat 34-40 S. E.

Sun 40-45 S. E.

Sunday Dec 5

First part of these 24 hours. Steaming breeze from the NW. Steaming S by W.
the S. E. with great violence. The first part steaming S by W. the S. E. with great violence. The first part

Sat 33-40 S. E.

Sun 40-45 S. E.

Monday Dec 6th

First part of these 24 hours. Steaming breeze from the S. E. Steaming S by W.
the S. E. with great violence. The first part
steaming S by W. the S. E. with great violence. The first part

Sat 33-40 S. E.

Sun 40-45 S. E.

Tuesday Dec 7th

All these 24 hours strong breeze and rain from the NW. Steaming S by W. under short sail.

Sat 33-40 S. E.