

Remark onboard Sch E off Flatfield of Edgartown a rush of blood to the head sent anxious for a Doctor who came onboard and relieved him at noon got under way and stood out side

Saturday March 19th

First part of these 24 hours calm came to Anchor out side Middle part the same latter part at daylight a strong breeze from the E and breathing weather and low barometer got underway and came in to Anchor at 8 AM blowing heavy from SE and raining so much

Sunday March 20th

First part of these 24 hours a gale from the SE and raining at 3 PM wind hauled to the SW Middle and latter part a gale from the SW

Monday March 21st

First part of these 24 hours strong breeze from the WSW weather clearing up Middle part the same latter part at daylight calm still at Anchor

Tuesday March 22nd

First part of these 24 hours fresh breeze from the SW and raining Middle part the same latter part blowing hard still at

Remark onboard Sch E off Flatfield of Edgartown
Wednesday March 23rd

First part of these 24 hours a gale from the SW Middle part wind moderating latter part at daylight got underway with the wind WSW stood out side at 8 AM wind commenced blowing in a gale came in to Anchor again first Charles D. Harris & Mitchell in Grand for Making Breaths &c

Thursday March 24th

First part of these 24 hours a gale from the SW Middle part moderating latter part at daylight got underway and stood out side took of the Grand he promising faithfully to behave himself for the future

Friday March 25th

First part of these 24 hours fresh breeze from the WSW cruising out side at 6 PM came in to Anchor Middle part the same latter part light breeze from the SW remained at Anchor

Saturday 26th

First part of these 24 hours light breeze from the SW Middle & latter blowing a gale

Sunday March 27th

First part of these 24 hours strong breeze from the WSW Middle part moderate latter part at daylight got underway and stood out side