

Monday January the 1st 1849

the New Year commences with A light breeze from the S.W. and fine weather, at day light set all sail steering N by E, Lat^t 45.23. Long^y by Limer 58.20. By Chron 58.40 the latter part of the day inclining to A calm, at 8 P.M. A light breeze from the N.W. furled the top gallant sails flying jib & jib & courses, steering N.E. by E.

Nothing of the whale kind Abby. L. N. Bristol.

Newman's sick. I would give all my old shoes, to trade situation, with the poorest Devil I can think of. I am home sick, sea sick, and love sick, and sick of the sea without A remedy. There is no balm for healing hearts.

A tear what A time A mauling Devil.

of all kind of sickness home sick is the worst
