I shipped this man at King Geo Sound for the voyage - in going from there to Benbow - came to the conclusion he was not good for much. People at B told me he was very sickly and not of much use anywhere - He had been living in that place for some time.
I gave the Officer no directions to take him after the desertion but as he was later should be obliged to carry him to sea so thought it better to let him go and ship a good man in his place.

was onboard the vessel but a few weeks and took no oil while onboard no more made up of this man
