

Remarks on board Bk. James Allen

- 139 Tuesday January 24th Lat 47:20 S
This 24 hours had fresh breezes from the Westward steering at by W so ends the day showery Long
- 140 Wednesday Jan 25th Lat 45:58
This 24 hours weather the same as above employed at ships duties sent in the fish and mended in ends the day
- 141 Thursday Jan 26th Lat
This 24 hours blowing a storm from N.W. ship under lower T-Sails on opposite tack
- 142 Friday Jan 27th Lat 44:40
This day blowing a moderate Gail from N.W. steering off N.E. saw one sail get out water
- 143 Saturday Jan 28th
This 24 hours light S.W. winds steering E. by N. so ends the day under short sail by the wind
- 144 Sunday Jan 29th
This day had light S.W. winds steering off N.E. Gained with the ship Horatio Hope on & John Winthrop at sun down Huala Is. bearing S. by E dist 40 miles
- 145 Monday Jan 30th
This 24 hours pleasant weather gained with the John & Winthrop the Horatio in sight
- 146 Tuesday Jan 31st
This 24 hours fresh weather from the North saw the 2 Whalers get out water

J. L. Lake Master

1882

Cruising off Huala

- 147 Wednesday February 1st Lat S
Light Weather from the Westward, lowered the L. & B.B. for a Hump back returned with out success gained the Horatio saw the John & Winthrop so ends the day under short sail land in sight
- 148 Thursday Feb 2nd
Light Westly winds Land in sight also the other 2 Whalers mentioned above and saw one other sail
- 149 Friday Feb 3rd
Light pleasant weather 2 sails in sight land the land
- 150 Saturday Feb 4th
Light S.W. winds Land in sight and John & Winthrop and gained with the Horatio saw Humpbacks and one steamer
- 151 Sunday Feb 5th
Blowing a fresh gail from the North the 2 Whalers in sight
- 152 Monday Feb 6th
More moderate sail the Horatio wind from the Westward
- 153 Tuesday Feb 7th
Blowing a storm from S.W.
- 154 Wednesday Feb 8th
This 24 hours moderate weather from S.W. sun gradually steering into the N.W. employed at ships duties the Horatio in sight