

At Sea

All Treatment on Board Ship Brunswick Captain, Henry Foster of Flores, which lying off the Island and having a strong breeze and the ship steering rather wild and the man at the wheel being a green hand was ordered to keep the ship steady which the man (Joseph Daily) has good witness he answered by saying keep her steady Sir but he who not speaking quite so loud as some men was not heard by the Master who made his way towards him and seizing a rope began striking him over the head and shoulders while the man did not resist at all
