Lovely Caroline No 1st 1845

Come all young men & maidens attends unto my rhyme it was of a virgin all seated in her prime She kiss the blushing roses admiring all around for it was lovely young Caroline of Edingborough town

Young Henry was a highland lad
A courting to her came
And when her parents heard of it they did not like the same
Young Henry was offended and unto her did say Arise my lovely Caroline and with me run away

We will go to London love and there we will marry with speed
And there young lovely Caroline shall enjoy true happiness indeed
She being enticed by Henry put on her other gown
And away went young Caroline
Of Edingborough town

Over lofty hills and mountains
Together they did roam
Untill they came to London
So far from her happy home
